LESS ACTIVITY IN STOCK EXCHANGE

Postponement of Decision in Trust Cases Not Much of an Advantage.

PRICES FALL OFF AGAIN

CLOUD STILL HANGS OVER THE BIG CORPORATIONS.

New York, April 12.- The action of the stock market today was watched with Standard silver dollars in gencuriosity and some anxiety for indications of the wider effects of yesterday's Working balance in treasury fect it will have in delaying the final In banks to credit of treasurer settlement of the trust cases.

It was evident that the violent rise in prices yesterday had brought into the market large selling orders both for home and foreign account. Side by side with these was an influx of further buying urders. The latter were believed to be largely for short account, the bears having become alarmed over the sudden rise of prices. The toning down of the first effects of the supreme court's action was due to the more conservative view taken of its effect by the financial and business community at large than by the stock market element. It is believed every large corporation will feel itself proscribed in its plans and in the scope of its activities until the questions at issue in the anti-trust cases shall be dedefined and settled. An early decision would have been preferred, therefore, to devernment bonds steady; railroad the indefinite postponement involved in bonds irregular.

the rehearing of cases. Other news developments were of mixed effect. The resort to arbitration of the parties to the New York Central wage erence to the falling off in unfilled orders markets and the comprehensive meager-

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, April 12.-The wheat market dispute was confirmatory of the con-fidence that labor troubles would find a rallied late in the session, and closed 1/20. settlement without widespread strikes this 1/4c higher to 1/4c lower. Corn and oats settlement without widespread strikes this year. The prespect of arguments in the soft coal mining controversies deepened this conviction. The public pronouncements of the executive heads of the United States Steel corporations and the Amalgamated Copper company, professing satisfaction with trade conditions, seemed to be taken with reserve.

President Ryan's hopeful analysis of copper trade conditions encountered the falling price of copper metal in that market, and Chairman Gary's incidental refmand for the cash grain at all primary hand to be shown at the beginning ness of the decrease in the world's availon hand to be shown at the beginning of the new quarter received as much attention as his claim for a rising scale of orders in the current business of the corporation. There was perceptible a moderated confidence in predictions of an increase in the next dividend on United States Steel.
